ORDER

The Court declines to consider the parties' proposed order at Dkt. No. 7. Plaintiff failed to follow the Court's Individual Rules—specifically Rule 1(F), which requires, inter alia, that “immediately following the filing of any proposed order or stipulation, parties are directed to submit a joint letter to the Court.” In this case, the Court expects that any letter would provide the legal and factual basis for the Court to conclude that the SEC's proposed final judgment is fair and reasonable, and that it would not disserve the public interest. See S.E.C. v. Citigroup Global Markets, Inc., 752 F.3d 285, 294 (2d Cir. 2014). The submission should specifically address the factors described in Citigroup. See id. at 294-95.

Additionally, counsel for Defendant is directed to enter a notice of appearance in this case.

Counsel for Plaintiff is directed to serve this order on Defendant and to retain proof of service.

SO ORDERED.
